

To Whom it May Concern,

Orange County just released all "Non-Essential" business to Stay at Home for 14 days. On the document, Notice #7 and #17 state Automobile transportation as an "Essential" business to stay open. Please allow our customer to transfer from their home to our dealership location in the address below. We also included our hours of operation to verify they are traveling between these times. Our customer has scheduled an appointment with us, and will be returning home, just as soon as, their business is done with us. You may contact our General Sales Manager below if you have any questions. Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Vincent Mancuso
